

Section 3. Economic Development

Once restored, the historic Opera House will again support theatre and other special events that will attract visitors to the community. The direct benefit is the rental fees to the local governments and the use of the facility during the Syrup Festival. Indirect benefits include the entrance image of the community and the money spent by visitors for food, fuel, and local products, (i.e. maple syrup).